The clerk read an emailed public comment from Mark Cavanaugh of Florence Bank, "We reviewed their plans and it appears very similar to what they did on a temporary basis last year. I will not be available for the on-line meeting/hearing but have no issues with their proposal. The Bank supports their plans and would ask the Commission to approve their application. Let me know if there are any questions and thanks for your help."

Jon Neumann was present for the application and noted his plans are to mimic what was done last year. Jon stated he worked with Georgianna from Miss Florence Diner to make the space work for both businesses and will be doing the same this year. Jon pointed out that there were a lot of issues last year with the tent blowing over but otherwise the patrons really liked the outdoor space so he'd like to continue on a more permanent basis.

Commissioner Kahn asked if Jon will be sharing the space again this year with Miss Florence Diner.

Commissioner Yakovlev asked about parking and traffic coming into the parking lot from Main Street.

Jon Neumann noted there will be a barrier and cars will not be allowed to access the back parking lot from the Main Street entrance so cars will be rerouted towards the right side of the parking lot near Florence Bank.

9. NEW BUSINESS

The clerk pointed out that the ABCC upheld Attorney Seewald's Motion to Dismiss the appeal submitted by Ibiza Tapas to change their dba. Now, the decision is in the License Commission's hand on how to proceed.

Commissioner Campedelli asked why the restaurant can't do business as Ibiza Tapas as long as they are reporting business as Ibiza.

The clerk noted they have been doing business as Ibiza Tapas except all marketing, signs, menus indicate they are operating as Homestead.

Commissioner Yakovlev stated this has been hanging around for a long time because no one wants to take the license back.

Commissioner Kahn asked if it would be in the Commission's power to revoke the license and reissue it to Homestead.

Commissioner Campedelli liked Commissioner Kahn's idea and asked why the Commission hasn't done that yet.

Commissioner Kahn asked if this is something that the Commission has authority to do.

The clerk pointed out that it is a non-transferable license and it is not an asset that can be sold to benefit the business.

There was a brief discussion about the history of the license and the brief iterations that the license holder tried to operate as.

Commissioner Yakovlev believes the Commission needs to know how to proceed. Commissioner Yakovlev also would like to know if the outstanding issue will jeopardize the city's chances in the future of obtaining special act over quota licenses.

The clerk noted the Mayor would feel more comfortable seeking licenses once this issue has been resolved.

Commissioner Campedelli asked to put this conversation on the agenda for the next regular meeting.

10. ADJOURN

Commissioner Campedelli moved to adjourn the meeting at 4:41 p.m. Commissioner Yakovlev seconded. The motion to adjourn passed unanimously 3-0.
