Senior Services Director Departure

NORTHAMPTON, MA - Today, the City of Northampton shared that effective April 1, 2022, Marie Westburg has submitted her resignation as Senior Services Director to Mayor Sciarra. Director Westburg served nearly four years in Northampton, starting in May of 2018.

Director Westburg said, "I am proud to have helped modernize programs at the Northampton Senior Center and to have successfully guided the department through the COVID-19 pandemic. I have learned a great deal in my four years as Director and have decided it is time to move on to pursue new endeavors."

Mayor Sciarra added, "Northampton is grateful for Marie's hard work and innovative thinking at the Senior Center. I wish her the best going forward."

Northampton will post the position of Senior Services Director immediately.
